ROLL UP, ROLL UP! FINNISH CIRCUS SPECTACULAR COMES TO BRISBANE FESTIVAL

Finnish contemporary circus troupe Race Horse Company in collaboration with Circo Aereo will bring its groundbreaking show Petit Mal to Brisbane Festival from 13 – 17 September 2011.

Race Horse Company, which comprises an ex-gymnast, breakdancer and former MMA and cage fighter, has taken Europe by storm with the breathtaking physical theatre of Petit Mal.

This action-packed performance for Brisbane Festival 2011 will include everything from break-dancing and hip-hop, to a Chinese pole act, daring trampoline stunts and acrobatics.

Brisbane Festival Artistic Director Noel Staunton said Petit Mal was one in a stellar line-up of international productions in the 2011 programme.

"Petit Mal is an incredible live show, which I have no doubt will leave Brisbane audiences mesmerised," Mr Staunton said.

"This year, Brisbane Festival will bring six international productions to town, giving local audiences a taste of art from across the globe."
